

Life Insurance is really Death Insurance

What we know as Life Insurance (i.e. buying into a plan to leave something behind after death) would really be better described as Death Insurance. It never kicks in until post mortem. In fact, the French language uses the term “assurance décès” which is much more realistic.

But how about Life Assured for Eternity?

Lots of people “hope” that will come true for them, but they lack the assurance that it will actually turn out that way. However, the Bible explains exactly how you CAN have that assurance. It means subscribing to God's insurance plan well before death comes your way. No one can predict just when that will be -- best to be prepared. And if you listen carefully to the terms and conditions that God lays out in His book, the Bible, you will find there is only one possible path to such absolute assurance, which includes blanket coverage for all perils. Once you have it, no power on earth can ever void the policy. Many religious men over the years have devised plans to earn eternal life, but the cost to make it possible is actually so high no one could ever afford it. It would require perfection, and no one ever got there.

Life Insurance requires regular payments to keep it effective; but all the premiums in God's plan have been paid in advance by His Son, the Lord Jesus, a cost well beyond our ability to measure. It involved paying, under the judgment of God, for each and every sin we have ever committed. This happened at the cross of Calvary where Jesus took our sins upon Himself so that God could pour out His judgment upon them, and when He died, they were all erased.

A free plan? Where do I sign?

The fact that Jesus eradicated them is a tribute to God's loving mercy towards mankind. But before you sign on, you will need to agree with God that you have absolutely nothing to claim before Him. You have already been condemned as guilty anyway. Romans 3:23 states “All have sinned and come short of the glory of God”. Nor do you have a single contribution to make that could ever avail anything. You will need to come as totally dependent upon God's love and grace, and with complete trust in the value God sees in the shed blood of Jesus Christ, His own Son.

This is a genuine offer that has been available for over 2,000 years, but has been largely refused. Thank God millions have seen it God's way and accepted the One who declared “I am the way, and the truth and the life; no man comes unto the Father but by me” (John 14:6). Believing will change God from Fierce to Father, and the Lord Jesus from Judge to Saviour.

Put this policy into effect today

Here is the contract: “God so loved the world , He gave His only begotten Son, that whosoever believes in Him should not perish but have everlasting life”(John 3:16). When you sign up, it will mean that you have a new life from that moment on. The one you were born with will surely die. As the saying goes “You can't get out of this life alive”. But now, the new life, called Everlasting or Eternal Life, is begun in you and will continue for ever. All true believers have two birth dates; the one when they were born into this world, plus the day they committed their eternal future to the One “who His own self bare our sins in His own body on the tree, that we, being dead to sins, should live unto righteousness by whose stripes ye were healed” (1 Peter 2:24).
